

The Donald Trump philosophy

I am perfect. Everything I do is perfect. Whatever I say is the truth. Anyone who disagrees with me is wrong.

I can hold many jobs and do them all perfectly. I should be allowed to run everything.

I have no need to be consistent or reasonable.

I am the United States. Dissent is Treason.

God is on my side. Actually, I am God. My opponents are therefore Evil.

Corporations should be allowed to do whatever they want.

Poor people have too much money; the wealthy don't have enough.

The proper response to criticism of me is anger and disparagement.

The measure of any person's competence is loyalty to me.

Anything bad which happens is due to left-wing extremists. Conservatives can do no wrong.

If people experience natural disasters, they should be left to fend for themselves.
